IN VOGUE

CHOPS ARE SHOWING ABUND ANCE OF THESE MATERIALS.

Veilings, Chiffons and Cotton Textures Respond Most Beautifully to Ornamental Bands-Pretty Kimono Waist With Princess Skirt.

Bordered materials are to have an Immense vogue this summer, and they are already seen in abundance in the shops. The veilings, chiffons and cotton textures respond most beautifully to these highly ornamental bands, for such goods, while needing some trimming or other, are hard to be suited with garnitures. The bands now woven at one side or both of the goods suggest striped satin ribbons. Spanish laces and the odd arabesques of Indian decorations, and some of the borderings show a riot of the richest color. Again, threads of black or a heavy black band will be run along the most delicate tints, these giving the materials a very Frenchy look.

Along with these handsome new things there are counters and counters of thin textiles all of which have been greatly reduced, as they belong to the winter supplies and do not show the latest touches. Nevertheless, these bargain goods are most destrable, as it is an easy enough matter to supply the effect of a band of ribbon, satin or velvet, and in point of weight and coloring they do not in the least suggest cold weather materials.

Of course the between-season gown calls for a new hat, and even with the winter one headgear must be lightened now to seem in accordance with prevailing tastes. So here are spring hats with us, and such spring hats—high crowned, of course, britliant straws and trimmed always with some dashing fancy plume or other that goes up to enormous heights. Those who prefer satin or silk hats also find them everywhere, and as it is quite the thing to make these of one color and trim them with an other it is possible to use up many bits of home material if the hats can

FOR THE GIRL WHO CAMPS of highest grade.

Some Things That Will Add to the Pleasure of the Summer Outing.

Take along a good supply of stories to tell. Around the campfire at night a good story teller is an acquisition. Not only is a supply of jokes good; but weird stories, ghost stories, animal storics will all be listened to with avidity. Not all evenings will be spent around the campfire, but some will, and the good talker will add much to the evening's pleasure. The girl who can make a good fudge or any other kind of good candy is usually voted a brick on a camping trip. If you are not expert, practice a hit beforehand; and remember that in camp you won't have all the conventences for candy-making that you have at home. A hot water bottle, ready-made mustard plasters, arnics, remedies for scratches and bruises and blistered feet and mosquito bites—this doesn't sound like a hilarious time, but there'll be a good time just the same—all such things are liable to be in de-

Berries Served in One of the Little Affairs Seem to Taste Fresher.

The little round baskets in which figs are so often sold are worth saving. In most households they are thrown away as soon as the figs are eaten; often the figs are removed by a servthrown away without anyone noticing Especially does one get the effect of newly picked berries if the basket is first lined with leaves and the berries laid on the leaves. If it is possible to get the leaves of the particular berry that is used it will not in reach other green leaves will do very well.

Among many old wonderfully made watches reproduced this season is a French one, very thin, its undulating edge outlined with gold leaf. The back of the watch, and almost the entire face, is covered with rich black enamel, on which are painted tiny but very natural, roses, convolvuli, and daisies with their foliage.

Cardul is a gentle, tonic remedy, for women's ailments. It is a natural medicine-safe, harmless, purely vegetable. It has been in successful use for more than 50 years. It has cured thousands. It should do the same for you.

Voman's Ionic

Mrs. Mary Neely, of Denver, Tenn., says, "I think there is no tonic on earth, as good as Cardui. I used it with the very best results. I had backache and nearly everything a woman could suffer with, until I took Cardul. Now, I feel better than I have for two years. I shail always recommend Cardui to other suffering women. I can't praise it too highly. As a medicine for weak, tired, worn-out women, Cardul is safe and reliable. Try it, today,
